Notes and News.

HE LIBRARY IN WAR-TIME.—The usual services of the Reading Room, ng Library and Postal Department are still being maintained, so far r attenuated staff permits. The use of the Library is, indeed, on the ase; and country readers must be prepared for some falling off in our ation for promptness in dealing with orders by post. By the same token ake no apology for the delay in the issue of this number of the Bulletin, re only glad that we are still able to publish it at all.

OMENIUS CELEBRATION.—Comenius, the great Czech theologian and tionalist, in commemoration of the tercentenary of whose visit to nd in 1641 we arranged a small exhibition last year, was born in 1592. s therefore suggested that we should keep the exhibition open till the nn of this year in commemoration of the 350th anniversary of his birth. ngst the visitors to the exhibition we have been proud to welcome, on ent occasions, His Excellency President Benes, and His Excellency an Masaryk.

AUTUMN EXHIBITION.—For the Autumn an exhibition has been ged to commemorate anniversaries of two Unitarian worthies—the nary of the death, on October the 2nd, 1842, of William Ellery Channing, ican divine, anti-slavery apostle, and social pioneer—and the 150th ersary of the birth, on October 17th, 1792, of Sir John Bowring, ller, linguist and translator, hymn-writer, and literary executor of ıy Bentham and editor of his works.

ERCENTENARY OF THE FOUNDER'S BIRTH.—The Reverend Dr. Daniel ıms, Founder of the Trust which bears his name, died on the 26th of ıry, 1716, in the 73rd year of his age. The precise date of his birth is nown, but it most probably was some time during the year 1643. It erefore, fitting that we should in the year 1943 begin the commemora- f the tercentenary of his birth, though we may hope to celebrate it worthily at a later date and under happier circumstances. A like bad ıe attended the bicentenary of his death, which fell in the midst of st war.

small exhibition of books and manuscripts is being arranged, which t is hoped, adequately present Dr. Williams as a prominent dissenter day, a doughty controversialist, and a loyal servant of the Crown and itution, as well as public benefactor.

VINITY SCHOLARSHIPS.—In the Divinity Scholarships examination in mber last, a Scholarship of £85 per annum for two years was awarded mes Fairlie, B.A. (Oxon) of Westminster College, Cambridge. Mr. e further distinguished himself by qualifying for the Scholar's Prize.

hibitions for one year were awarded to G. G. Lloyd, B.A. (Univ. of) of the Theological College, Aberystwyth; J. G. Weller, B.A. (Lond.) eshunt College, Cambridge; and C. G. Williams, B.A. (Univ. of Wales) Presbyterian College, Carmarthen.
